

Job Posting

Speech and Language Pathology Instructor

Burnaby School District – Community & Continuing Education

The Burnaby School District is seeking a qualified Speech and Language Pathology (SLP) Instructor to teach the Supporting Students with Communication course as part of the Education Assistant (EA) Diploma Program. This course provides students with foundational SLP concepts and strategies to support children and adolescents with diverse communication needs.

This is a contract teaching opportunity, with one position available for both the full-time and part-time EA cohorts.

Course Schedule:

- Full-Time Cohort: 5 consecutive weekdays, 9:00 AM – 3:30 PM, offered twice a year (Spring and Fall).
- Part-Time Cohort: Runs over one month, with 6 classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays (6:00 PM – 9:00 PM) and 2 classes on Saturdays (9:00 AM – 3:30 PM), offered once a year in July.

Compensation:

- $90- $120 per our depending on experience

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and deliver engaging lesson plans with interactive activities, including icebreakers and in-class exercises.
- Assess and grade student assignments, ensuring timely submission of final grades.
- Maintain regular attendance and commitment to scheduled classes.
- Provide guidance and support to students throughout the course.
- Collaborate with the EA program team to enhance course content.

This role is essential in fostering excellence in teaching, student engagement, and program success. The instructor will work closely with staff and students to create a supportive learning environment.

Qualifications & Skills:

- Certified Speech-Language Pathologist (SLP).
- Previous SLP teaching experience.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities:

- Experience teaching or training adults.
- Experience working with children and youth, particularly those with communication needs.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Energetic, engaging, and enthusiastic teaching style.
- Excellent organizational skills.
- Flexibility to accommodate potential scheduling adjustments.

How to Apply:

Submit your cover letter, resume, SLP certification, and two professional reference letters to Scott Spracklin at scott.spracklin@burnabyschools.ca.

Application Deadline: Sunday, April 6, 2025, by 11:55 PM.

For more details about the EA diploma program, visit: www.burnabycce.ca/courses/education-assistant-diploma/

Join us in shaping the future of Education Assistants and making a meaningful impact in our schools!